Mike and Elisabeth are talking about learning languages. Elisabeth met a woman at the language 1. who can speak 2. different languages. She comes from China and is 3. to a Frenchman. Mike learned French at school for 4. years but cannot understand a word when he goes on 5. there; he still finds the language 6., though.

Elisabeth did Spanish at school, which isn't terribly difficult like Japanese. She had a go at Japanese in her last year at college, but she was 7. at it.

Mike would love to be able to speak 8. It sounds mysterious and 9. but he thinks there's very little point in even trying, whereas Elisabeth would really like to be able to speak German since she works for a German 10. Finally, Mike and Elisabeth decide to go to German classes together.
