PART C:

(16 x 0,5 = 8 MARKS)

Using only ONE word complete the passage below to summarise the conversation:

Paul and Elizabeth are talking about breakfast habits in various countries. The traditional French 1. breakfast is light. People eat baguette or farmhouse bread with 2. jam, butter and sometimes 3. croissants, which they usually buy at weekends. Croissants are 4. fatty so each person eats only two. They eat plain croissants or with jam, or dipped in 5. coffee. Today most children eat cereals, but 6. fruits and yoghurt are also popular.

On the Norwegian breakfast table you can find a 7. cup of coffee with lots of delicious food. Traditionally you can also find fish in 8. sauces and marinades - like sardines in 9. tomato sauce, mustard sauce, herbal wine sauces and in 10. oil and spices. Additionally, they eat fresh tomatoes, sliced cucumbers, red and 11. green peppers, as well as a number of cream cheeses.

Cypriots eat a lot of things for breakfast. You have to be hungry when you come to the Cypriot breakfast 12. table. The traditional Cypriot breakfast includes 13. grilled halloumi, cold meat, olives, tomatoes, 14. cucumber, warm pitta bread, honey or jam and lots of fresh fruit. The Cypriots drink Greek coffee served in tiny cups with a 15. glass of cold water. However, you can also find full English breakfast in Cyprus with spicy sausages, 16. eggs and baked beans, but it is not traditional at all.
