Speaker 5

A. A famous musician of a very different kind of music was the reason I developed an interest in classical music.

B. Oh no! It wasn't my teacher who made me love classical music! The music he chose was so boring!

C. I have always hated classical music . I find it terribly monotonous and too complicated to understand, so I can't be bothered.

D. Young people today think classical music is a thing of the past and opt for more popular genres. That's because it's difficult to understand.

E. I was more into upbeat tunes when I was young and if it hadn't been for my teacher's perseverance, I would never have taken to classical music.

F. My first attempt at playing a musical instrument was a disaster. It was a family member who introduced me to the works of the best classical composers.
