JAMIE OLIVER - THE FOOD PHENOMENON!

Born in the UK, Jamie Oliver is a phenomenon in the world of food. Popularly known as the “Naked Chef” because of his love for simplicity when cooking, he is one of the world’s best-loved chefs and television personalities. He has inspired people to spend more time in the kitchen and even start growing their own food! His programmes have been broadcast in over 100 countries and his cookbooks are bestsellers in the United Kingdom and across the world. His YouTube videos are watched by millions and his book, Jamie’s 30-Minute Meals, has become the fastest-selling book in the country.

His TV series Jamie’s school dinners, in which he tried to improve the quality of food in schools, was a huge success. After studying what children usually eat at school, he came to a shocking realisation - British schoolchildren ate all sorts of junk food which contains too much fat, salt or sugar. As a result, obesity was a very real problem. That is when he decided to campaign for healthy food in schools. As a result, certain foods were banned from school menus giving their place to healthier choices.

Cooking is a creative process and one that involves a fair bit of trial and error. Few would disagree that celebrity chef Jamie Oliver is an extremely creative cook. What is for sure is that Jamie Oliver doesn't just limit his creativity to the kitchen. He uses it in everything he does.

In a recent talk on creativity, Oliver said creativity is about being dynamic, being quick-thinking and questioning everything you do every day. That's what it takes to be at the top of your game. It's not enough to do one thing and do it well. You have to establish a brand, build on it, make new products, offer new services and keep yourself in the public eye.

Jamie Oliver started off as a chef in the 1990s. Now he's not just a chef but a businessman, a restaurant owner and a very strong media personality. He has branded cookware, ingredients and an edible perfume, to name a few lines of his business emporium. Oliver admits to taking risks, making a lot of money but also failing 40% of the time. However, he says "I wouldn't change anything. Mistakes have taught me powerful lessons".

So what can we learn from Jamie Oliver's success? Be creative, aim high, take risks and be prepared for a few failures along the way. Then, maybe, you too will end up with a net worth of £240 million!
